QUITE A NUMBER AT CLEMSON YESTERDAY

Roads and Weather Kept Great Meany Away—To Have Big Day September 24.

About 20 farmers and business men and members of their families from Anderson county were at Clemson yesterday, the day designated as Anderson county day. Owing to the muddy roads and the threatening clouds, many would not venture out. It was nearly noon when all assembled but after dinner the party got busy and were thrown around. One of the first trips was to the fertilizer experiment station, followed by a visit to the cotton field where they are experimenting in several different varieties of this product.

The creamery was then visited and afterwards a trip to the dairy barn. A heavy rain came up about this time and broke the party up. At the meeting it was decided to set apart September 24 as a day for the people of Pickens, Oconee and Anderson counties. If the weather is favorable, this is expected to be a day of a great gathering at Clemson College.

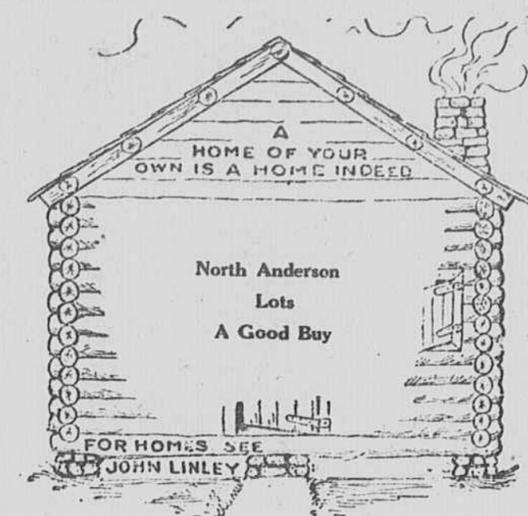

FOUR FAMILIES HAVE FORTY SOLDIERS AT FRONT

Berlin, Aug. 14.—Four families in Schleswig-Holstein can claim with full right to have done their duty to the Fatherland. One family in Anstet has ten sons in the field; a widow in Segeberg has nine sons and two sons-in-law at the front; nine sons of a beer dealer in Schoenberg are with the army, as are eight sons and two sons-in-law of a family in Hellschen. The total is forty soldiers for the four families.

Blessed is the Big Headed.
A Sunday school teacher had been telling her class of little boys about crowns of glory and heavenly rewards for good people. "Now, tell me," she said, at the close of the lesson, "who will get the biggest crown?" There was silence for a minute or two, then a bright little chap piped out: "Him wot's got th' biggest 'ead."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The Remedy.
Helen—Father, I must have a new riding habit.
Close-Plated Parent—But, Helen, times are hard and I can't afford such luxuries.
Helen (angrily)—But, father, what am I to do without a new riding habit?
Father—Get the walking habit.—Pitt Panther.

Not So Unconscious.
In one of the industrial towns in South Wales a workman met with a serious accident. The doctor was sent for and came and examined him, had him bandaged and carried home on a stretcher unconscious. After he was put to bed the doctor told his wife to give him sixpenny worth of brandy when he came to himself. After the doctor had left the wife told the daughter to run and fetch three-penny worth of brandy for her father. The old chap opened his eyes and said in a loud voice: "Six-penny 'orth, the doctor said."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

A HOME OF YOUR OWN IS A HOME INDEED
North Anderson Lots
A Good Buy
FOR HOMES SEE JOHN LINLEY

If you had bought one of the FIRST lots offered for sale in NORTH ANDERSON you would have then taken a chance of losing money on your investment; but not NOW, when NORTH ANDERSON is an assured SUCCESS.

Enough lots have been bought, and enough nice homes have been built already by the representative people of Anderson in NORTH ANDERSON to assure the success of NORTH ANDERSON as a residential section of Anderson.

Even if there was another Suburban Subdivision near Anderson with as many splendid advantages for home-sites as NORTH ANDERSON offers, still NORTH ANDERSON would continue to grow if there was no further promotion of this property.

In other words: There isn't more than ONE chance in a THOUSAND of any person losing money on a purchase of a NORTH ANDERSON lot; and judging the FUTURE by the PAST, NORTH ANDERSON lots are bound to increase in value right along.

Can you find a NORTH ANDERSON investor who wants to sell his lot for less than what he paid for it? If, by any chance you can find ONE, we can name you DOZENS that would not sell their lots for anything less than a good profit.

Every Man of Means Makes It a Point to Invest His Money in Good Real Estate. This is the Best Dirt We Know, Anywhere.

The Clerk Guaranteed It.
"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Berry & Co., alt Creek, Va. For sale by all dealers.
